and objections (if any) to the Application having been withdrawn, resolved or overruled on the merits; and a hearing having been held to consider the relief requested in the Application and upon the record of the hearing and all of the proceedings had before this Court; and this Court having found and determined that the relief set forth in this Order is in the best interests of the Debtors and their estates; and that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Application establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Application is GRANTED as set forth herein.
2. The Debtors are authorized to retain and employ EY LLP as tax services provider in these Chapter 11 Cases, nunc pro tunc to November 28, 2022, and to pay fees and reimburse expenses to EY LLP on the terms specified in the Engagement Letters.
3. EY LLP shall apply for compensation for professional services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases in compliance with this Court's order regarding interim compensation of professionals retained pursuant to section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code. EY LLP shall not seek reimbursement of any attorneys' fees or costs arising from the prosecution or defense of any of EY LLP's applications for allowance of compensation and reimbursement of expenses.
4. EY LLP's hourly fees pursuant to the Engagement Letters (and any supplemental engagement agreements or statements of work subsequently approved in these cases) shall be subject to the standard of review set forth in section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code. EY LLP shall keep reasonably detailed time records in one tenth (1/10) hour increments in accordance with the U.S. Trustee Guidelines and will submit, with any fee application, together with the time records, a narrative summary, by project category, of services rendered and will identify each professional rendering services, the category of services rendered, and the total amount of compensation requested by EY LLP.

5. EY LLP's fixed and contingent fees in any supplemental engagement agreements or statements of work subsequently approved in these Chapter 11 Cases shall be subject to the standard of review set forth in section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code. EY LLP shall keep reasonably detailed time records in half hour increments and will submit, with any interim or final fee application, together with the time records, a narrative summary, by project category, of services rendered and will identify each professional rendering services, the category of services rendered, and the total amount of compensation requested by EY LLP.

6. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Engagement Letters, the Indemnification Provisions are hereby modified as follows:

- (a) EY LLP, the other EY Firms, and the EY Persons (as defined in the Engagement Letters, and hereinafter the "Indemnified Parties") shall not be entitled to indemnification, contribution, or reimbursement pursuant to the Engagement Letters for services, unless such services and the indemnification, contribution, or reimbursement therefor are approved by this Court;
- (b) the Debtors shall have no obligation to indemnify the Indemnified Parties, or provide contribution or reimbursement to the Indemnified Parties, for any claim or expense to the extent it is either: (i) judicially determined (the determination having become final and no longer subject to appeal) to have arisen from the Indemnified Parties' gross negligence, willful misconduct, bad faith, or self-dealing; (ii) for a contractual dispute in which the Debtors allege breach of the Indemnified Parties' contractual obligations, unless this Court determines that indemnification, contribution, or reimbursement would be permissible pursuant to In re United Artists Theatre Co., 315 F.3d 217 (3d Cir. 2003); or (iii) settled prior to a judicial determination as to the exclusions set forth in clauses (i) and (ii) above, but determined by this Court, after notice and a hearing, to be a claim or expense for which the Indemnified Parties should not receive indemnity, contribution, or reimbursement under the terms of the Engagement Letters, as modified by this Order; and

(c) if, before the earlier of (i) the entry of an order confirming a chapter 11 plan in these chapter 11 cases (that order having become a final order no longer subject to appeal) and (ii) the entry of an order closing these chapter 11 cases, the Indemnified Parties believe that they are entitled to the payment of any amounts by the Debtors on account of the Debtors' indemnification, contribution, and/or reimbursement obligations under the Engagement Letters (as modified by this Order), including without limitation, the advancement of defense costs, the Indemnified Parties must file an application therefor in this Court, and the Debtors may not pay any such amounts to the Indemnified Parties before the entry of an order by this Court approving such payment. This subparagraph (c) is intended only to specify the period of time under which this Court shall have jurisdiction over any request for fees and expenses by the Indemnified Parties for indemnification, contribution, and/or reimbursement, and not a provision limiting the duration of the Debtors' obligation to indemnify, or make contributions or reimbursements to, the Indemnified Parties. All parties in interest shall retain the right to object to any demand by the Indemnified Parties for indemnification, contribution, and/or reimbursement.

7. Notwithstanding anything in the Application to the contrary, to the extent that EY LLP uses the services of independent contractors or subcontractors (collectively, "Contractors") in these cases, EY LLP shall: (i) pass through the cost of such Contractors to the Debtors at the same rate that EY LLP pays the Contractors and (ii) seek reimbursement only for actual costs of the Contractors.

8. To the extent the Debtors and EY LLP enter into any additional engagement letters, the Debtors shall file notices of such additional engagement letters with the Court, and serve any additional engagement letters on the applicable notice parties. To the extent any of those parties object, within ten days of such new engagement letters being served, to the additional services to be provided by EY LLP, the Debtors will promptly seek a hearing before the Court. All additional services will be subject to the provisions of this Order. To the extent no related timely objections are filed, such additional engagement letters shall be deemed approved pursuant to this Order.

9. The Debtors are authorized and empowered to execute and deliver such documents, and to take and perform all actions necessary to implement and effectuate the relief granted in this Order.

10. To the extent that the express terms of this Order are inconsistent with the Engagement Letters, the express terms of this Order shall govern.

11. All fees and expenses incurred by EY LLP and approved by the Court shall be treated as administrative expenses under section 503 of the Bankruptcy Code.

12. The terms and conditions of this Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

13. This Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to any matters, claims, rights or disputes arising from or related to the Application or the implementation of this Order.
